

ABOUT US

- The Lauder-Reut School Complex, Romania (Hebrew „reut”= „friendship”) is a part of a generous educational project, initiated in the 80's and supported by the Ronald S. Lauder Foundation in other 15 European countries, founded by the renown businessman and philanthropist, former US Ambassador to Vienna, Mr. Ronald S. Lauder.
- Established in 1997, the Lauder Reut School Complex carries the mission stated by the international Ronald S. Lauder Foundation, to revive and preserve the Jewish culture and Hebrew language in the European Diaspora, devastated after the Holocaust period and the Communist regime.

Ronald S. Lauder Foundation in Europa - schools, kindergartens and others educational centers

- The complex has been rapidly developing, as well as the over 50 similar educational institutions from Europe, on the multicultural background, with a bilingual educational offer (Romanian-English), under the authorization of the Romanian Ministry of Education and Research.
- Now Lauder-Reut hosts 260 students in the kindergarten, lower and middle school, and it has become one of the elite private schools in Romania, which has developed as a successful alternative to the public schools in the country.
- In the school year 2006-2007, The Lauder-Reut College is opening, with a theoretic profile (arts and science) and an extra school offer of business, media and diplomacy.
