

*"Life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness " is one of the most famous phrases in the United States
Declaration of Independence*

PROJECT AIMS

The multilateral partnership is based on the in-depth study of the content of articles 10 and 11 of CHARTER OF FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS OF THE EUROPEAN UNION solemnly proclaimed in Nice 7th December 2000 on the freedom of thought, conscience, religion, expression, information, and the preparation of a multidisciplinary path involving history, social sciences, national and foreign languages for students from 14 to 19. A special priority will be given to the intercultural dialogue in order to understand different means of freedom.

All countries involved in the project: Bulgaria, Turkey, Romania, Germany, Poland, Italy will create a big working group to compare the educational strategies, giving attention to the freedom concept.

CONCEPT:

Freedom

This term is used to describe various types of individual freedom, such as religious liberty, political liberty, freedom of speech, right of self-defense, and others.

It is also used as a general term for the sum of specific liberties. Fundamental perhaps is personal liberty, the freedom of a person to come and go as he or she pleases without unwarranted restraint.

- Consists of three component ideals: (1) national freedom; (2) political freedom; and (3) individual freedom.

Article 1

All human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights.

Article 3

Everyone has the right to life, liberty and security of person.

Article 18

Everyone has the right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion.

COMENIUS MULTILATERAL PARTNERSHIP

Project Products:

- The methodology and the materials to be used include films, theatre pieces, historical sources, literary passages and qualified information from the web. The Information and Communication Technologies will be used throughout the whole project.
 - The final products will be a Multilanguage website and a hypertext to be later used as teaching tools of the updated curriculum of the schools taking part in this multilateral partnership.
 - The students will be involved in study in depth of their own countries traditions and widening range of knowledge by CLIL and LAC methods of learning foreign languages by exchanging information coming from other countries (see theories of E. Hawkins and M. Grenfell). In order to achieve these objectives the platform of e-twinning will be used as well.
- Web site
 - Hypertext containing the final and updated web site
 - Translation of texts and audio documents regarding freedom of religion, expression and information from the national language into English
 - Common part of questionnaires
 - Organization of EUROPE DAY for dissemination and video conference among all the partners; chat and forum by using e-twinning platform
